COLONEL LINDBERGH, flying with Miss Morrow, was flamed, damaged a landing wheel and it struck the ground with one wheel gone. His plane tumbled completely over, but for almost miraculous good fortune neither of the young couple was seriously hurt. Colonel Lindbergh injured his shoulder slightly by falling, and taken his share of flying risk.

The escape of the young people will be wonderfully good news for millions, and it may accomplish good results.

Colonel Lindbergh, beginning with his lone flight in a one-engine plane to Paris, has risked his life as though it had no value. Yesterday's happening will convince him that accidents can happen, even with Lindbergh holding the controls.

And it may persuade him to spend more of his time on the ground. He has surely done his share of flying, and taken his share of flying risk.

The big steel company will have more stock, and call in several hundred million of bonds now outstanding. That news would surprise properties were the basis of the Steel Trust formation, and it repeatedly declared that steel common and preferred stock was not even worth, and taken his share of flying risk.

What he thought worthless is now worth, in hard cash, much more than a billion dollars. Never underestimate the possible future of any well-managed American industry.

Some owners of Steel stock allowed to subscribe for new stock at an attractive price, wonder why the bonds were called in. There was one good reason: properties, temporarily, there would be no possibility of taking control from those that now have it. With the bonds called in, the management becomes permanent, subject to stockholders' vote.

And 20 per cent of the stock would control an election.

Canada worries about a Great Lakes to the Atlantic via the St. Lawrence. To have Uncle Sam build the canal, and give it to Canada, would be a national right to use it, would be agreeable.

On the other hand, Uncle Sam building a canal to the ocean, via the St. Lawrence, would give him to establish certain rights to a canal built with his own money, and Canada quite naturally does not like the thought of losing it, even by implication, any part of her sovereignty.

That's one problem Mr. Hoover will have to settle.

An American citizen, he would say.

"All right, build an all-American canal, exclusively on United States territory, and let those who want to use it pay toll. Our Canadian cousins can build their St. Lawrence canal when they get ready."

But as an engineer, unwilling to waste money, Mr. Hoover would insist on getting the best American canal (one of millions more) that the St. Lawrence would cost.

Canada doesn't expect attack from us—we expect news from Canada. A sensible arrangement should be made.

In these days of widespread crime, it is difficult to know whether to stand still or run. Henry Lagowitz, 17, innocent of evil, coming out of his aunt's house, saw a "plain clothes" detective, who, for some reason, didn't like his looks, and told him to stop.

He thought it was a highwayman, and ran. On general principles, the detective shot him. He will recover.

On the high road a man raises his hand, orders a driver to stop. The driver has two guests. He may be stopped by a highwayman, intent on robbing him, or by a virtuous prohibition enforcement officer, investigating. The wise thing is to stop and save your life, for in either case you run the risk of being shot.

Marshal Foch is dying, fever approaching high temperature above 101. His recent photographs show the results of age and strain. War could not conquer his spirit, but time is uncoquerable.

The great marshal, who united the Allies and conquered the Germans, will lie under the gilded dome of the Invalides, not far from the body of Napoleon. Crowds will gaze in reverence on the tomb of Napoleon, the ally who saved the lifeblood of France and made himself eternally useful by making kings ridiculous.

Victims will glance casually at the tomb of Foch, who preserved the French nation.

WARRANT FOR YOUTH IN MALDEN SHOOTING

A jealous admirer of Miss Mildred Berkofsky, 22, of Bellingham St., Chelsea, according to the police, shot and seriously wounded Samuel Cohen, 24, of Harvard St., Malden, today, as Cohen was escorting the girl home.

A warrant charging Samuel Berkofsky of harboring with assault with intent to kill Cohen was laid today in Chelsea Court by Miss Berkofsky.

The shooting occurred as Cohen and the girl reached the doorway of her house and in the opinion of Miss Berkofsky the bullet was intended for her, but her secret action in hitting the other man saved her.

The wounded youth was taken to Chelsea Memorial Hospital. After talking with the girl, police expressed a belief that Kaufman waited in the doorway for several hours before the couple returned, then stepped down and confronted them. According to Miss Berkofsky, she and Kaufman, her sister for two and one-half years, once lived in the same house.

By JACK CONWAY

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 28—Jack Sharkey, conqueror of Young Stribling in a roundabout bout, today left for Boston after signing to battle Max Schmelling and Jack Dempsey under the direction of the Madison Square Garden Corporation.

The Sharkey-Schmelling bout will be staged at the Yankee Stadium, New York, in June. The proposed Dempsey match is planned for September and only awaits a suitable opponent. Sharkey is a former champion, but he is still in stage another comeback.

The terms for the Schmelling bout call for $100,000 with the privilege of accepting 25 per cent of the receipts.

In view of Schmelling's knockout victory over Johnny Blisko, it is felt that the German heavy "Puss" turns to Page 1, Column 4.

LONE EAGLE MAKES 3
TRIPS WITH ONLY ONE
HAND FOR CONTROLS

Mexico City, Feb. 28 (AP)—Undaunted by yesterday's "misadventure," Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Miss Anne Morrow today flew for more than 30 minutes with one hand in a hand holding a commercial plane which he borrowed for the flight.

They took off at 10:27 a. m., landed ten minutes later, and twice repeated that operation.

Miss Morrow seemed a trifle nervous as she entered the machine, but after the three short trips she was as smiling as the colonel, who was in a very cheerful mood after his first test run.

The colonel, who is a pilot, said that the flight was a success, and that he was confident that he could fly with one hand for a long time.

He hoped, of course, that the flight would be a success, and that he was confident that he could fly with one hand for a long time.

CLAIMS 57 P. C. OIL PROXIES

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Proxies representing more than 57 per cent of the stock of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana were claimed today by the committee headed by John L. Rockefeller, Jr. This percentage, it was announced, represents 16,000 of the 26,000 stockholders.

The committee, which is seeking to prevent the re-election of Col. Robert W. Stewart to the chairmanship of the company, charged that many of the 16,000 proxy stockholders desired to give their proxies to the Rockefeller faction, but were afraid of losing their jobs if they did so.

Story Writing Takes Years of Work

By LOUISE RICE
Noted Graphologist

"I HAVE tried many things and failed. Would you advise me to take up short story writing or what line of work is best fitted for me?"

"HARRY,
"Pawtucket, R. I."

My dear boy, now that you read this note in cold print, does anything strike you? Seeing that you have a sensible mind and some sense of humor, I venture to say that it does, and that that something will make you glad that you are anonymous!

Just see what you imply. Since you have failed in all other work, you at least agree that you will try the most casual of jobs—that's exactly it, isn't it? And in isn't that the most absurd thing in the world for a person to say?—Stop and think that men of extraordinary and unusual education have spent 20 years trying to write something worthy, and that many of the cleverest people have failed to make a living at writing. Remember that it usually takes at least five years of the hardest kind of work for any writer, no matter how equipped with brains, splendid education and native talent, to make even a moderate living by writing. That literature is counted one of the most difficult professions.

Having thrown which cold water on you, Harry, and no doubt made you squint, I shall proceed to administer refreshments. You really do have some of the makings of a writer and if you will work hard at it, and try to make your living at something else for about five or six years, it is possible that you may have success.

Don't dream of trying to make money out of such work for years, though, or you will be facing bitter disappointment.

NOTE: Send sample of your handwriting to Miss Louise Rice, noted graphologist, for analysis. Write your name and complete address on unruled paper, in ink or pencil. To cover clerical costs, enclose 10c in silver or stamps. Also enclose a stamped, addressed envelope. The individual analysis will be returned to you within a period of one or two weeks. Letters will not be published if sender so requests. Miss Rice has a number of letters which she cannot answer because of wrong or inadequate addresses.

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Favorable consideration of the bill to create an Indian employment service as a step toward assimilation of the Red Man in the industrial life of the nation was recommended today by Secretary West.

The rapid development of the West, the secretary said, in a communication to the chairman of the Senate and House Indian affairs committees, has created a demand for the services of the Indian which presents a favorable opportunity for employment.

"The situation today is favorable to make immediate progress toward a solution of the problem by establishing the Indian as a wage earner, gaining a competence for himself," he added. "When an Indian reaches this stage he need no longer be a ward of the Government. He and his children take their places as normal members of the body politic. So far as he is concerned the Indian problem has been solved."

Secretary West said it was his belief that the decades of supervision which the Government has exercised over the Indian as he explored them to the point where they are prepared for a steadily increasing participation in the industrial life of the nation.

Rain Tonight and More Tomorrow

MELLON KEEPS SAME STAFF

Washington, Feb. 28 (INS)—With Secretary Mellon remaining in the cabinet, the present treasury organization will be maintained virtually intact, and general policies will be unchanged, it was learned today.

Most high officials in the treasury have been asked not to submit their resignations, and "wing" that for the time at least they will continue in office. As a rule, at the end of an administrative year officials subordinate to the secretary resign to await the pleasure of the new chief.

Practically all of the "key" jobs in the treasury have been filled by Mellon, from the important post of undersecretary to comptroller of the currency, commissioner of internal revenue, the assistant secretary and bureau chiefs.

Ogden L. Mills of New York, one of the Hoover leaders in the state, succeeded Garrett B. Winston as under secretary. He was mentioned

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Women's Christian Temperance Union issued statistics today showing that the death rate from alcoholism in the United States for 1923 was forty in 1,000,000 of population as compared with one in 1,000,000 in 1920.

The announcement said this increase was due to the "refusal to accept the benefits of the prohibition law," and advocated a vigorous educational campaign, especially for young people.

OLD MINE FIRE BURSTS OUT

New Straitsville, O., Feb. 28 (AP)—The smoldering peril of a 45-year-old fire in coal lands today manifested a section of new Straitsville as flames burst through the surface and spread deadly rays over the hillsides.

Miners from several companies in the vicinity are blasting around an exposed crater of nearly 50 square feet to shut off the flow of air and check the flames.

Started in the 80's by men who fired a mine in the heat of a strike, the blaze has smoldered since then, eating its way along the veins of coal and occasionally cropping to the surface. In the 45 years since the fire started, it has undergirded menaces has moved several miles in each direction, causing cave-ins and raising buildings over its path.

In Lee Kitchen

GIVE LESSON
K. Camille Den Dooven, former chef to King Albert of Belgium, gave a most instructive lesson on small cakes and cookies in the Martha Lee Kitchen yesterday.

A capacity audience filled the Martha Lee Kitchen yesterday afternoon when K. Camille Den Dooven, former chef to King Albert of Belgium, gave a wonderful lesson on small cakes and cookies.

We only regret that the capacity of the kitchen being limited to 50 ladies, many were disappointed. We hope that these will try to arrange to come earlier next week when Michael J. Kenny, pastry chef of the Parker House, will take charge of the class.

Den Dooven, as usual, translated his original French formulae in terms of the everyday housewife's ability. If a few unscrupulous husbands were tempted to stamp out at their delayed dinner yesterday, we are sure that they will put up with contentment every remaining day in the year if Den Dooven's cookies are included in their daily menus.

Even the most faithful calorie counter forgot her too solid flesh and revelled in the sweet, toothsome morsels which came from the ovens in flocks.

We ask for Den Dooven's recipes on the magazine page of this paper next Saturday and plan now to let nothing interfere with your taking advantage of these unusual interesting and valuable "Chef Days" in the Martha Lee Kitchen.

First Lady and Terrible Tim Romp in the Rain

Washington, Feb. 28 (INS)—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge and the two roving White House dogs are making the most of the few hours left for them in the spacious White House grounds, no matter what the weather.

Tranquil and with a light fur-trimmed coat over her shoulders, Mrs. Coolidge before 8 a. m. was romping with Terrible Tim, her favorite, and the black English police dog.

A fine misty rain was falling, but it did not interfere with Mrs. Coolidge's enjoyment.

Terrible Tim, a liver-colored Chinese chow, is the one White House dog Mrs. Coolidge claims as her own, and she will probably take him to Northampton with her March 4, the only one to go. Most of the pets have been given homes in Washington.

EVENING	New York Stocks	AMERICAN	New York Curb	MARKET
Gifford, Swope, Other Busy Men Do Charitable Work	NEW YORK STOCK MARKET		Industrial Activity Likely to Reach Peak During Spring	COPPERS GO HIGHER IN

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—By R. C. FORBES

Mr. Gifford, president of the League for the Peace of the World, has just consented to direct the acquisition of the property of the Charity Organization Society of New York and intends to devote painstaking attention to the problem of the homeless. Mr. Gifford, a New York charity leader, has been unusually effective in his efforts to solve this social area are utterly necessary and callous all through their life until they are no longer the charity cases of some town, change their environment, are patronized as very first-class citizens, and are human beings and not human pitiful anthems.

Now, it is true that many rich men do not give up any considerable time or thought or charity to the service of the poor, but the vast majority until they have reached the top and are no longer the poor, are not so much concerned with the poor as they are when they are poor. It is very far from being true that the poor are the only ones who are poor.

Take Walter Gifford, for example. He is a wealthy man and I doubt

It illustrates a truism widely known in the business world: That our business leaders, many of them, are not so much leaders as they are observed only by their own misty-making activities.

Last week, President James H. McGraw announced the company thanks to the millions recently added to the endowment fund of the McGraw-Hill Foundation. The members of the teaching staff had been rewarded for their efforts. The fund had been raised for similar pur-whether he could even today be classified as a classic. McGraw was not by any stretch be described as an old man. He is only forty-four years old for his date of birth. He is the feeling head of a corporation possessing resources of two and a half billion dollars, and having close to 400,000 stockholders. Gifted with a keen intellect, McGraw is a well-figured, an ornamental executive. He is on the job every day of his life.

But McGraw is not only the head, all the corporation's vast operations. Yet, here he is taking on charity work. McGraw will not let any one intrude on his mentality and vitality.

Take the president of another of the nation's largest banks, the American National Bank, in New York City, Gerald Schoepf, of General Electric. Like Clifford, a young man, he is a member of the same group of presidents of gigantic corporations who are the backbone of the economy as busy as a raster. It is not known to the public, but Schoepf has been in the city of New York for 10 years. New York, an institution which has been the center of the world's health, vice, money, etc., for neighborhood residents.

Not long ago I was talking with a young man, a graduate of the University of the South, who was a wealthy, who in a way was a multimillionaire, was mentioned as a member of the same group. Interestingly, he doesn't yet realize that he is a member of the same group as the poor.

any observation is that the average business generation who are coming into the middle are very creditable number who do realize that their good fortune appears upon them a moral obligation to help others. Most fortunate.

In short, our business leaders compare not unfavorably with others in the public spirit and philanthropy.

Orders for Steel Castings Increase

In commenting on this trend, Colonel Leonard P. Ayres, economist and president of the American Trust & Company, points out: "During the last six years this country has enjoyed a most unusual period of economic activity. Industrial production has increased, but it is nevertheless true that this period of protracted prosperity has resulted in such keen competition for the limited available plant and labor force that the production of steel castings was 62 per cent a year ago. The production of steel castings was 64 per cent of capacity in January and 65 per cent in February, 1935, and 51 per cent a year ago. The 123 reporting concerns have a present monthly capacity of 186,000 tons of castings, but only 100,000 tons of the commercial castings capacity of the United States, of which 67,700 tons are usually devoted to rail and 33,000 tons to miscellaneous castings."

Brazil Sugar Crop

Rio Janeiro, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Brazilian sugar crop for 1929 is estimated at 8,000,000 tons.

rising rents and a gradually rising percentage of new buildings in some types of building, are factors which point to moderation rather than further increase of construction activity.

Stimulus coal production of 3,345,000 tons in January was well above that of the same month of the past fall or winter—in fact, it was above the coal strike of 1927. This figure reflects a temporary surge in output due to the resumption of industrial activity, and it does not indicate a permanent increase in output after the coal and steel industries have ended. Stocks are low, and the market is expected to remain tight for better than a year ago.

In the textiles, January cotton consumption amounted to 100,000 bales, or 10% of the total stockpile, and was only by consumption in March, 1927. The reports of the Association of Cotton Textile Merchants indicated an approximate balance between consumption and production around 34,000,000 yards; sales were in good volume, and stocks showed a slight decline.

In silk, broad silk manufacturers seem to have been pushing their sales a little further, with some accumulation of stocks in preparation for the spring season. The recent high rate of activity in the cotton market has not had any effect on other active stocks in the textile industry. The market has been quiet, and the price has fallen and added 1 to 2½ points to market value.

Trading orders for stocks were flowed into the big board in much volume that the tape was soon 2 to 3 points higher.

All of the "trading favorites" were bought to higher price levels than the Victor and the American, which showed over the board and brought in a big volume of business. In buying since the reserve board famous "warning" was issued, Ward has been buying a lot of stock. The bank rate today, though there is some likelihood in his a big expancross with their semiboufflets. Nevada sheepmen expect the Nevadadays, first to be brought to this country, to produce a more compact fleece and one that will shear more heavily.

While the United States produces roughly one-tenth of the world's wool supply, annual consumption approximates one-fifth of from Australia, New Zealand, Argentina, Chile, South Africa, and the United States. The company's preferred dividend is $26 a share on 46,653 common and Class A shares outstanding. The company's fiscal year ends on December 31, 1985.

1961. The average number of sheep and lambs recorded from 36,792 to 38,200, a gain of 1,408. The annual wool clip has averaged 1,000,000 pounds since 1950 for the past 35 years, despite the fact that the sheep industry has steadily waned. Some of the finest wool, however, is produced in the state of West Virginia, where purebred Merinos are raised.

Gradual disappearance of free range sheep raising has caused producers in the industry to increase sheep and wool production in the family. For sheep encouragement, representatives say, sheep growing again can be made profitable. Most of the agricultural states.

EARNINGS of Mack Trucks, Inc. for the current quarter are needed to show substantial increase compared with results for like quarter for 1952.

Goodyear Discounts Dividend Resumption

The rapid recovery in Goodyear Tire & Rubber common stock on the New York Stock Exchange from a low figure of 16 cents in February to the current equivalent of almost 120, including rights, notwithstanding the record high, represents the discounting of continued heavy earnings power and the possibility of a dividend resumption before summer.

Under the present law it is necessary to prove that liquor is being sold to a person who is not a bootlegger. Also is proposed to charge liquor nuisance charges to gross misdemeanors, and to make prohibition violations a felony. These measures the same as for like offenses under the Alvin law.

MERELY MARGY

Story by Lloyd Mayer

By John Held, Jr.

MARGY, my dear, I THOUGHT I'd go mad and HITE myself when that piqueback BILL suddenly APPROACHED me on the BEACH with an EXPRESS of ACUTE embarrassment and ASKED me if I knew I'd torn the BACK out of my BATHING SUIT. I TALKED with him. Actually, my dear, he's that BITTER that he is a PIPES himself too often round the SHORE somebody'll take him for a CLAM one of these days, do you know what I mean? Well, ANSWER, I proceeded to TELL him with a touch of HAUTEUR that my brief BIPPING ruffian was not that that way was not at all even-ly, or OTHERWISE I'd look like NOTHING. He came in an EYE-BLING gown, no less, whereupon he looked PERFECTLY STUNNED and in-quired in F.B.ROSE accents, "WHAT will girls do NEXT?" Look, he says me, my dear, because he pretended to be FRIGHTFULLY SHOCKED at my LOW arched HIND END, I think just SHOWS you he's simply a foul old HYPOCRITE, my dear, because EVERYBODY KNOWS the BACK is NATURAL movement. NOTHING RISKY ABOUT it unless you're one of those NEEMAuffers who are just COINCEIDENT on all RING MEN, do you know what I mean? But, my dear, I MUST tell you about the simply RIL-ling discovery I made about HANI at this point because I'm so PLEETELY BAREF and non-LEASSED about it, no less—I mean: ACTUALLY AM?

our reparations diggers and a Berlin statistic evader.

Our man said with dignified, but mutinous aloofness: "What are you going to do with that debt matter?"

The Berlin ambassador replied: "The same thing that the Germans do with the answer."

The Washington tourist, without portfolio, asked: "What's that?"

"The smile, but rotund, Berliner then said: "Let it lay!"

Upon investigating the German financial conditions it was discovered that that's exactly what the Germans did with the answer.

After this short burst of pro rata confusion our reparations committee was honored by being selected to unveil the statue of limitations.

It delimits Europe to call Uncle Sam a Shylock.

That's apparently the reason why European statesmen want to pay us off with a pound of bolton.

By the way, that's a reminder that there is a good town in Italy for the next debt conference.

STOMACH UPSET

Get at the real cause. That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets cleanse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a flat, dull, clogged, no ambition or energy, trouble, no undigested food's trouble, no undigested food's trouble, no undigested food's trouble.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. Know them by their olive color. Don't let the work without eating, cramps or pain. All Druggists.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like, 25c, 50c, 66c.

Says the Rev. Mr. Wiley: "There are just two kinds of people—snoot preepul and whoopee-pul."

Chairman McClutchie, of the Committee on Arrangements for National Ship That-Noise-Week, last night issued the following statement:

"Our reliance upon popular enthusiasm to put over Ship That-Noise-Week has indeed been well placed. The people's response for this movement has been all that we could desire. In fact, we would like to take this opportunity of pointing out that the demonstrations thus far have been, if I may say so, quite out of place."

Things as crowds congregating on street corners and giving cheers for Ship That-Noise-Week is hardly in keeping with our campaign. It is all very well to talk about what a fine thing Ship That-Noise-Week is, and all that. But don't you think, friends, it might be better to do so in a modulated voice, or even in a whisper."

When Pain Comes

Two hours after eating

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over stimulated, and food sour. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

Cure spontaneous of the harmless, tasteless alkali in water will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—every drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U.S. Registered Trade Mark of the Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

PONTIAC PROHIBITION HAS PROVEN ITSELF FAILURE

Pierre S. Du Pont, chairman of the board of E. I. Du Pont & Nemours & Co., of Wilmington, Del., declares in a studious analysis of the prohibition law that it is a failure.

In an article of nearly 400 words published in Current History Magazine, excerpt from which the Evening American is privileged today to reprint through the courtesy of the New York Times Co., Mr. Du Pont surveys the political, sociological, economic, and even the pathological effects of the crash of alcoholic intemperance due to temperate legislation.

At a great business executive, internationally known, the by-products of whose companies alone comprise a vast industry employing great capital and thousands of skilled workers, Mr. Du Pont's views are of more than common interest.

By PIERRE S. DU PONT

NOT once in any one of the United States during the past 80 years has it been proposed to forbid the use of intoxicants as a factor for leverage purposes. A suggested remedy for the trouble has been prescribed only through laws and constitutional amendments relating to the sale, manufacture and transportation of intoxicants.

If liquor distilling is not a crime sufficient to warrant a law to force it, why should the sale of it be prohibited? The answer is that it is not a crime, nor is it a crime to use it in combination with

EVIL REMAINS

It would have been impossible to forbid all drinking by law or to locate the manufacture of liquor. Here we have a serious problem to solve, a difficulty that cannot be solved by the use of force. Here we have a serious problem to solve, a difficulty that cannot be solved by the use of force.

Here Are Rules in Hearst Temperance Contest

The purpose of the contest is to obtain a practical plan, as a substitute for prohibition, which will secure better actual temperance conditions, which will be more easily possible of enforcement by State and Federal authorities, which will offer less encouragement to crime and tend less to denounce the public service, and which will not so outrage and violate the fundamental rights and personal liberties of American citizens. The rules and conditions of the contest are simple and are as follows:

- 1—Every person is entitled to enter the contest, but no one person may submit more than one plan.
- 2—The practicable plan proposed as a substitute for prohibition must be set forth in an article containing not more than one thousand words.
- 3—This contest will close on April 30, 1929, and no plan which has not been mailed and postmarked on or before that date will be considered.
- 4—The articles submitted in the contest will be judged by a committee of eminent Americans, the personnel of the committee to be announced at a later date.
- 5—The full prize of $25,000 will be awarded to the contestant submitting the best plan as a practicable temperance substitute for prohibition.
- 6—If other plans not awarded the first prize shall still be considered worthy of some compensation by the committee, a second prize of $2,000 and other prizes $1,000 each may be awarded.
- 7—Articles submitted in the contest to be considered in this contest may be sent to the Temperance Contest Committee, care of the editor of any one of the following Hearst newspapers: Many Times Union, Atlanta Georgian, Baltimore News, Boston Evening American, Chicago Herald and Examiner, Detroit Times, Los Angeles Examiner, New York American, Omaha Bee-Herald, Philadelphia Sun, San Francisco Chronicle, Seattle Post, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Washington Herald, Wisconsin News (Milwaukee).
- 8—If you have no objection to publication of your plan, please write "May print" in upper left hand corner of first page.

cent of the number reported in the same cities during 1914. In 1924, the percentage of national prohibition arrests fell to 10.4, a number of 100,000. Gradually as various sources for supply of alcohol have been cut off, the percentage of arrests for drunkenness has also increased, until the total number of arrests is equal to that of pre-war times.

In England, by the use of regulatory methods, arrests for drunkenness have been reduced one-half the pre-war record. Here, by the use of prohibition, arrests for drunkenness have increased one-half the pre-war record.

Every public-printed individual should rally to the ranks of supporters of the movement inspired by Mr. Hearst's generous award. It strongly believes that some modification of the prohibition laws is at hand at present is necessary and judiciously imminent.

Mothers Have Discovered That Time to Stop Children's Colds Is Before They Catch Them

They Build Up Youngsters' Bodily Resistance With the Tonic That Is Rich in Soluble Carbohydrates and Iron.

Children who catch cold easily are generally the youngsters who have little power of bodily resistance to infection. This is often a much more serious condition than it first would be.

That frightened mothers know how to time to stop children's colds, which so often lead to dangerous diseases, is before they catch them.

The mothers of today build up their little ones' bodily resistance with Hoffa's Malt Extract, with iron, the tonic that is rich in the carbohydrate and iron which builds up the body's resistance to infection.

Hoffa's Malt Extract, mixed with water, is not only a delicious food, the ideal infant digestive that improves appetite and gives the child a healthy, happy, and contented disposition, but it also builds up the body's resistance to infection.

Keep this up for ten days. Then give your child a little more Hoffa's Malt Extract, with iron, the tonic that is rich in the carbohydrate and iron which builds up the body's resistance to infection.

At the end of this ten day course, your child's body will be built up. The body's resistance to infection will be built up. The body's resistance to infection will be built up.
